Hear my heart and it goes choo-choo (choo-choo)

That's the sound of my love when I'm headed for you

Like a train I'm goin choo-choo (choo-choo)

That's the sound of my heart when I'm headed for you

And I know I'm gonna be on time

And I feel you'll be by my side

Cause it's been such a long, long while

Since the last time, the last time I arrived

Oooh, I traveled many miles, ooh-we girl just to see you smile

And I sold all my things, just to buy that ticket on a choo-choo train

And I know when I hit town, we're gonna rock that place like an old soul song

And we'll have many happy days

They say that love don't last, but we're gonna prove them wrong

They say that love don't last, but we're gonna last a long, long time, time, time, time, time, time, yeah

Never Again

Oh Rwanda , they say never again, but what happened?

Oh Rwanda , they say never again, but what happened?

Turn our back on a brown skin

Never gonna help him (what happened?)

There no money in a war, then we'll stay at home

You got to fight for your freedom and free your own people (what happened?)

We'll give ya nothing, unless you give us somethin

WE WANT resources, black gold

WE WANT cheap workers and no revolt

WE WANT resources, your jungles and forests

WE WANT easy leaders, aimin to please us

Oh the world, we're coming to a place, everybody plugged in, but no one making change (what happened?)

Oh the world, there's too many wars, too many leaders willing to destroy their people (what happened?)

Why you wanna kill your brother, he just lives in another country, keep dividing countries

Why you wanna kill your brother, he just lives in another country, keep dividing countries

WE MUST feed the poor to help stop these wars

WE MUST educate the ignorant, so no more people illiterate

WE MUST fight for peace, nonviolently

WE MUST give to charity, help those in need

Oh Rwanda , they say never again, but what happened?

Oh the world, there's too many wars, too many leaders willing to destroy their people (what happened?)

The white skin take the slaves until we finally changed our ways

We helped destroy a continent it was a land of kings and queens

We turn our back but now we need to face them on the front

They need us help 'em back up after we went and knocked 'em down (x 2)

WE MUST feed the poor to help stop these wars

WE MUST educate the ignorant, so no more people illiterate

WE MUST fight for peace, nonviolently

WE MUST give to charity, help those in need
