Hm, Hm, Hm

Oh there he goes, he's gonna walk into a power trip and let's hope he falls

Oh how he talks, he's gonna talk my head off, he said you got to fight war with war

And in this world, the country on top, will always point the finger

Police the world, and we're never ever ever gonna look ourselves in the mirror

(chorus):

Well I love my country yeah, well I love my country yeah, yeah, yeah

But I just can't turn my head, from all the bad things that we did, did, did

Well I love my country yeah, well I love my country
yeah, yeah, yeah

But I just can't turn my head, from all the bad things

And a good friend he once said, "Well I love this place cause I feel safe"

And a good friend he once said, "Well I love this place
cause I feel safe"

freedom comes at a price, it's called the blood of our neighbors

freedom comes at a price, it's called the blood of our soldiers

(chorus)

soldiers

neighbors

cause I feel safe,"

And a good friend he once said, "Well I love this place
cause I feel safe."
