"Kickin'"

yeah i want to give birth to your baby, baby scream all night long, exercise our breathing so they hear it in your cum i tangle my umbilicle there's no need to be political let's not get too serious just try to stay predictable
'cause i i can't help that i think you're really kickin' x3
i can't help i think you're really, think you're really (kickin') (kickin')

i met you on a tuesday or maybe was it wednesday?
you befriended me, defended me, shortly after you offended (affected) me i asked you "what's your name?" and looked at you the same
is that a raw possibility that you can check out my fertility?
'cause i, i can't help that i think you're really kickin' x3
i can't help i think you're really, think you're really (kickin')

can't you feel that my climax isn't awfully cool?
my physical, biological isn't logical it's astronomical

i can't help that i think you're really kickin' x13
