All I see, around me, enemies
Stealing smiles from me
Consequence, freeing me so sorry, as i deceive you now Look at me, do you see the hero that I'll never be?
Breaking Dreams, coming clean with the me I thought I'd never be

Sometimes I close my eyes
And dream I'm in a different place
Though nothing lasts forever
My dream is doomed to die
I sit through your replies
I'll never count on you again
Will nothing last forever?
My dreams will surely die

I like to bury myself alive
I get the most out of my lies
This gates place is so restraining So let me go.

Sometimes I close my eyes
And dream I'm in a different place
Though nothing lasts forever
My dreams will surely die
I sit through your replies
I'll never count on you again
Will nothing last forever?
My dreams will surely die
Will die
will die
