Socrates ain't got nothing on me when it comes to overthinking Paranoid that's how I prefer to be into the ground I'm sinking Then you call
And you say
To me in your ordinary way
That you can't Help me out
Of the ordinary

Chorus:

You're just like the London Sun man you're over and done with before you've begun
And I won't
Be like the only one who would stand there and smile
and try to be fun
When I say
Hey baby what went wrong we go back to beginnings
the story's too long
To be told
Like you were the only one who ever got left in the dark
by the London Sun

Hurricanes are blowing out my brains but my eyes are calm and hollow Airplane stalls from the sky it falls you can read the news tomorrow
Then you call
And you say
To me in your ordinary way
That your life
Has become Too fucking ordinary

Chorus

You're just like the London Sun man you're over and
done with before you've begun
And I won't
Be like the only one who would stand there and smile
and try to be fun

When I say
Hey baby what went wrong we go back to beginnings
the story's too long
To be told
Like you were the only one who ever got left in the dark
by the London Sun

If you wanna leave It's alright
I know what it's like To feel like Life is passing by When you are stuck in the place you're in Ordinary space you're in I'm stuck at a nook in the place that I'm stuck in with you

Chorus (2x)
By the London Sun (4x)
