So faithfully
Holding tight to every dream I thought our love would ever be
As the scent of hope slips through mt fingers plain for me to see
I can feel now in your eyes the changing way you look at me
Where's the love we knew would last us eternally

And will your arms still hold me
And your eyes console me, baby
Please don't turn your back and just pretend
That your heart still needs me
And your soul completes me
Can we find a way to fall in love again

It's hard for you
When your heart has opened uo to feelings that you never knew
Never thinking that you'd doubt our love you don't know what to do
I'd give anything, my heart, my soul if i could pull you through
Just to find again my love we hold so true

And will your arms still hold me
And your eyes console me, baby
Please don't turn your back and just pretend
That your heart still needs me
And your soul completes me
Can we find a way to fall in love again

And as everything night goes by
With every lovely tear I cry
It's do clear to me
I need you by my side

And will your arms still hold me
And your eyes console me, baby
Please don't turn your back and just pretend
That your heart still needs me

And your soul completes me
Can we find a way to fall in love again

Can we find a way to fall in love again
Oh baby, I need you to love me for the rest of my life

If we fall in love again
Would you love me for the rest of my life...
