I know it's late

But I needed to talk to someone

I've been thinking that

What if we never come back?

Wipe off your cheek

Roll down you're window and speak

Words won't break glass

What if we never come back?

What if we never come back?

Aim if you want

But you'll never hit a moving target like me

Aim if you want

But you'll never hit a moving target like me

I know talk is cheap

But I needed something to help me to sleep

I've no ties, no past

This time I'm leaving at last

I've been thinking that

Aim if you want

But you'll never hit a moving target like me

Aim if you want

But you'll never hit a moving target like me

What if we never come back?

What if we never come back?

Aim if you want

But you'll never hit a moving target like me

Aim if you want

But you'll never hit a moving target like me, yeah

Aim if you want

But you'll never hit a moving target like me
