Is there anyone to see tonight
To watch this town slip away
Is there anywhere to be tonight
To watch them all walk away
To drink, two drinks, too many
The car is safe
We say too many
Times we move with hesitation
And grabs the wheel and steers the weak to the bay
So walk it off
And save your face
You could never be that brave
Oh all in all, I'll concede
You could never get away
You could never get away.
Is there anyone to see tonight
To watch this town fade away
Is there anyone to free tonight
Oh make them stand up straight
Too late, the straight and narrow
The streets are wet
From where we go
To hide our fears from empty strangers
And ask the flask to drink and soon drown away
So walk it off
And save your face
You could never be that way
Though all in all, I'll concede
You could never get away
You could never get away (get away)
To drink, two drinks, too many
The car is safe
We say too many
Times we move with hesitation
And grabs the wheel and steers the weak to the bay
So walk it off
And save your face
You could never be that brave
Oh all in all, I'll concede
You could never get away
You could never get away.
