If you're the air that I breathe,
Tell me why I'm suffocating
If you're the promise that I keep
Tell me why it's breaking
Don't let go of my hand
I need you to keep holding on
(I need you to keep holding on)

You're the wings, let me fly
Now my altitude is fading
You had me up so high
It's too far, now to face it
This can't be the end
I need you to keep holding on
(I need you to keep holding on)

You been here from the start
And baby, now, you want my heart (heart)
If we let this fall apart
We lose everything

Whatever happens

When this world is closing in
We keep paying for our sins
I can feel the cost of this loving

Whatever happens

If our truth becomes a lie
I don't know how I'll survive
Can't you see me hanging on for life

Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
Don't let go of my hand

Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is

Don't let go of my hand

See my knuckles, still and white
Now I feel my hands slipping
Every day and every night
Think I'm losing grip and
The way inside is becoming too much to hold (too much to hold)

You're my sun, you're my star
Uuh, you're my God given
Let you inside my world
I still want you in it
I need you in my life
And I just can't let you go
(can't let you go)

You been here from the start (start)
And baby, now, you want my heart (heart)

Whatever happens

When this world is closing in
I can feel the cost of this loving

Whatever happens

If our truth becomes a lie

Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is

Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is

I'm holding on to a love scene
No matter more
Wanna love this one
Last grip and don't Lose the chance to find
All that we were living for

I would hold on forever
Paste our love back together
Just promise me
Whatever happens
(Whatever happens)

When this world is closing in
I can feel the cost of this loving

Whatever happens

If our truth becomes a lie

Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
Don't let go of my hand (don't let go)

Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
Whatever happens is is
