"God Came Down Today"

Have you seen the Eastern sky, there's a star shining high
A King has come for you and me, born to die to set us free
The word is out, He is here, Angels sing do not fear
The word is out, go and see, God came down today

People sing a song of joy, worshipping the baby boy Gifts for Him they do bring, all are worthy of a King Angels sing from up above, telling men of God's love His Son He gave to one and all, do you hear His call

Have you seen His star tonight, in the East shining bright
It beckons you, come and see, the Savior waits for you and me
His love shines bright throughout the land, you can reach and touch His hand Feel His love flow through you, like the morning dew

Christmas comes but once a year, to take away all our fears
Peace and joy Jesus gives, to all the world, all who live Come and see what God has done, He sent His Son, His only one
Born to die to set us free, born for you and me
