If you desire i can bring you the moon
It's not so hard when i'm right next to you
Cos anything yes i feel i can do
Just say you're gonna give me all your love

You want a ride up to the shining stars
Ain't so bad baby nothing is hard
Cos anything just to be where you are
Oh say you're gonna give me all your love

Give me your love - give it to me - all your love
You gotta give me all your love
Give me your love - give it to me - all your love
You gotta give me all your love

You gotta give me all your love

You wanna see all the world in a day
You trust in me - i will take you away
Cos anything so that you're gonna stay
Just say you're gonna give me all your love

And if you see what the future is like
A pleasure ride through the passage of time
Cos anything just to be in your mind
Oh say you're gonna give me all your love

Give me your love - give it to me - all your love
You gotta give me all your love
Give me your love - give it to me - all your love
You gotta give me all your love

You gotta give me all your love

Oh baby oh sugar oh honey
