There are no stages and the show's all ages so hey ho now lets go we've been up all night, drinking and fighting to the sound of rocknroll You bring the car, I'll bring the rent and we'll wake up with all our money spent. I'll buy a guitar and you can come as you are now it's time to hit the road Cause I'm feeling frustrated and I'm tired of waiting and doing what I'm told. This is the first day of my life. And I know nothing's ever felt as right. I'm feeling fine and I know where I am going I know where I have been. The times are changing but the feeling's the same as it was so long ago And right from the start we only played from the heart and let it take us where we'll go. I feel the music make me sweat. The only question's how high can I get? I'm feeling fine and I know where I am going I know where I have been. there are no stages and the show's all ages so hey ho now lets go we've been up all night, drinking and fighting to the sound of rocknroll For once in my life I got the feel of something for once in my life I'm feeling fine and I know where I am going I know where I have been.
