i feel the pain
the world is passing by standing in the rain i'm saying my last good-bye broken glass, burning up you're changing
and now i see
love went away

time to try clean the mess we made in a perfect world
walls are crashing down
but who's to blame?
we're worlds apart
bleeding from the pain, a scandal (oh)
break me runaway, a vandal (oh ey ey)

ey ey ey girl you break my heart like a vandal cause me pain (oh oh)
you destroy love, there you go
take my heart, sabotage
away, heart, take my soul i'm scarred, torn apart, broken

damn it's a shame
the damage is done
it's passed
it's still in my brain
a killer end from the start it's ok, yeah i'm good i'm changing (yeah)
now i see love went away

in a perfect world
but who's to blame?
break me runaway, a vandal (oh ey ey)

away, heart, take my soul

i'm dying, no one's around i'm flying then crashing down i'm trying, feet off the ground the way it goes (oh oh oh)
