A.K.A. birthday in october lyrics and music by brandon fleming did the sun come up for you today i know it didn't come for me the moon is hanging very low since you left me you wanted out of this deal so you signed the contract void

so now you're gone!

no one was around but somehow they found out about it was it from you? because i know it did not come from me

days go by some slow some fast i sometimes think about our past but that's behind me i must move on in God i will trust his word is my bond how could do this after so long all most made it to his 16th birthday

but you walked out & that's okay patiently i waited to see what this could be the verdict was in & you were out so how are you doing since you figured out that commonsense was on the reboundâ€¦ you were wrong maybe you weren't we live in a world, so full of confusion were nobody really knows the wayâ€¦ in God i still trust he's always shown me the way how could do this after so long

but if i had you at my side on his 16th birthday i would probably feel better than i do about this now and if you happen to be at his 16th birthday i hope you look around and try to find me how could you do this after so long all most made it to his 16th birthday
but you walked out & that's okay
i love you anyway
patiently i waited to see what this could be
[repeat]
you walked right out of my life 1/2 chorus [instrumental]
