lyrics by Brandon Fleming music by sisterpete

I'll break you're promise in two, I'll break you you don't even see the things that I do you sell your time wasted, and now no trace of God or what it was, or what he had for you don't be broken, don't be left behind

they always told you, how to manage your time don't be blinded, by the ways of this world cause you won't know it, until your funeral broken is how I feel, let me tell you now something that is real

I hate you and you're gonna hate me play recital suicidal tendencies from me

I take you down, and never let you up broken dreams snapped angel wings.. you see

I was not meant for you and you were not meant for me

I hate to see people that don't live inside of me inside of me

(REPEAT)

don't be broken

don't be broken by the thief

don't be broken

don't be broken by me don't let your dreams die (repeat x2) don't let 'em fall away

(REPEAT)

Bridge

broken people everywhere don't let your dreams die don't let satan

take you with his lies
