lyrics by Brandon Fleming music by sisterpete

Friday! Saturday.. and Sunday

Monday morning get up at five..

prepare yourself for the drive ahead of you

it's sad but true

(TURN AROUND)

got a long way to go

trying to come up with something to show for it

"I Love You" is written on the back window of your car..

tell me how far... how long until this withers away?

I wish there was more that I could do for you,

something to help you out of this now

I wish there was more that I could do for you,

I love you (echo)

it's a rough life, some one's gonna have to sacrifice

-might as well be me.. so you thought you just do.. do-do-do what-ever you want!

I wish there was more that I could do for you,

something to help you out of this now

but your faith is strong, and that's what carries you through the storms in your life but your faith is strong, and that's what carries you

BRIDGE REPEAT(no vox)

CHORUS(no vox)

I wish there was more that I could do for you,

something to help you out of this now but your faith is strong yeah!

Yeah your faith is strong now!

God Your Faith is strong â€¦enough
