lyrics by Brandon Fleming music by sisterpete warn me of all the dangers hold me back when I get close to the edge take me when I just wouldn't make it on my own break me of all these habits I've taken on

I'm looking for my angel to protect me when I've fallen pick up the pieces of my broken heart

mend me

can I beg of you, to take a moment of your time tell me something make me, feel so special!

be my only friend â€¦you'd be it my one and only friend

I'm looking for my angel

mend me

suffocate me, drown me with your love prick your finger baby I'll dry away the blood

I'll love you tenderly as selfishness fades away send me a drop of your love today be my angel!

Shaft!

I don't know who you are but I'm looking for you daily

I don't know you so well but come soon don't delay

I'm looking for my angel

pull me from the shaft of a broken heart

mend me
