lyrics by brandon fleming musicby/ jimmy fleming when you've been beat'n down and abused

Sittin' on a shelf, and nobody's around to pick you up.. . & help you carry on You've fallen from where you need to be you just need someone to come rescue you you will survive... you will live, and you will die, but you will survive... with Him at your side you will survive, you will survive...

you don't know what to do when all comfort has become pain who is there to blame

(echo) is there even any one to blame?

you don't know where to go... you're lost without Him by your side you just run & hide

you will survive... you will live, and you will die,

but you will survive... with Him at your side

( repeat )

1 / 2 verse

( instrumental )

CHORUS X 2

( instrumental
