Baby can you tell me is there something on your mind
You tell me that you love me but then you start to cry
Oh baby let me hold you close and help you to believe You're the only one inside my heart the only one I need

I know its complicated just making sense of life
I know your hesitating you been hurt to many times
But I aint gonna let you down know this much is true
Even if the world should end I'll be here for you

CHORUS:

I don't wanna live with out you baby
I don't wanna find somebody new
I can't stop loving you
I can't stop loving you
Girl you know I'd die before I hurt you
Never let you down I won't desert you
I can't stop loving you
I can't stop loving you
So if the stars fall from the skies and the sun stops shining to
I'll be by your side cause I can't stop loving you

You could wait forever as the world is passing by Love lies in the balance of hope and compromise
It takes more then memories or pictures on a wall
A little trust a lot of faith will get us trough it all

CHORUS:

I don't wanna live with out you baby
I don't wanna find somebody new
I can't stop loving you
I can't stop loving you
Girl you know I'd die before I hurt you
Never let you down I won't desert you
I can't stop loving you
I can't stop loving you
So if the stars fall from the skies and the sun stops
shining to
I'll be by your side cause I can't stop loving you

So many things I'll never know but this I understand

Loving you is the easy part I was made to be your man
Our love is in our hands
