First thing you'll say
Why don't you believe what I say
Next thing you'll say
Your friends never liked me anyway

Now it's a given
Just listen
I really don't need distiction
Baby, you're my addiction
It's totally unknow me
Being with you
As my friends and they'll tell you
That I'll always stay true

When I heard the things they said
Never paid much attention
I thought it was a jeleasy
Over you and me
Did you think I was blind
Did you think you're good fly
Ain't a waist about time
Boy I'm gonna have to break your concience

So look into my eyes baby
And tell me all your lies honey
But here comes a suprise

First thing you'll say
Why don't you believe what I say
Next thing you'll say
Your friends never liked me anyway
Next thing he'll do
Give me diamonds, treat me like a fool
This time you'll pay
He ain't never gonna get away

Come on, Open up and give me what you got You're looking kinda hot to me but Outside it's only 6 degrees yeah
Everytime you tell another lie
Your nose grows a little like Pinokkio

wooooooh
(You're talking kinda funny and you're looking like you've nothing to say)

So look into my eyes baby
And tell me all your lies honey
Don't make another sound, yeah
Rup this time around baby
You're busted, you've been found out

First thing you'll say
Why don't you believe what I say
This time you'll pay

But you're confusing me, using me
Like I broke your heart
Way you and your friends
but one is breaking ya'll apart
From the start I knew I was in love with the woman
You begin walking and talking
Like you always shouldn't

So look into my eyes baby

First thing you'll say
Next thing he'll do
This time you'll pay

First thing you'll say
