"Somebody Remembers The Rose"

Visit "Somebody Remembers The Rose" on MotoLyrics.com

while the others get high grows what are the dangers
what are the dangers of love I'm still a stranger

somebody remembers the drugs how will this handsome beauty flip price

honey, I'm out of service for a while damage cars been manufactured every day less one never works anyway

I'm still a stranger

honey, I know you make me high know you, yet I know you
