Hey, come here for a second
I don't like the way he treats you
He doesn't deserve you
He really don't

What kind of man
Would leave you standin' in the cold?
Must've been a silly one
To sacrifice a pot of gold
An' you're the kind of woman
Who needs a man that's always there
It's not that you require a lot
Just need some tender love and care, care

I give good love
I'll buy your clothes
I'll cook your dinner too, yeah
Soon as I get home from work
I'll pay your rent
Your faithful lover, ooh baby
Soon as I get home, soon as I get home
From work
Girl, I'll treat you right and I'll never lie
For all that it's worth

I give good love
(Good love, good love, good love, good love)
Girl

It doesn't make sense
Oh, you should've a broken heart
Well if I were the only one
I'd never let you fall apart
You're the kind of woman
Needs a man with lots of cash
With a stack of major credit cards
And with me you don't have to ask, ask

I give good love
I'll buy your clothes
I'll cook your dinner too, ooh baby

Soon as I get home from work
I'll pay your rent
Yeah baby
Your faithful lover, ooh baby
(Soon as)
Soon as I get home, soon as I get home
(Soon as I go home)
From work
Girl I'll treat you right and I never lie
(Oh yeah)
(Oh no)
Or flirt
(Girl I'll never, never, never ask around, no)
Soon as I get home, soon as I get home
(Soon as)
From work
(I'm comin' straight home to you baby)
Girl I'll be around, never let you down
For all that it's worth

I give good love
(Good love, good love, good love, good love)
Ha ha ah eeh good love
(Good love, good love, good love)
Givin' good love, love whoa

(I give good love, yeah)
I give good love
I'll buy your clothes
(I'll buy your clothes)
I'll cook your dinner too
(I'll cook your dinner for you baby, yeah)
Soon as I get home from work
(Oh as soon as I get home)
I'll pay your rent
(From work)
(I'll pay your rent, baby)
Your faithful lover
(Your faithful lover)
(I'll never, never do you wrong)
Soon as I get home, soon as I get home
(Soon as, soon as)
From work
(I get home)
(I would love you, love you, love you baby)
Girl I'll treat you right and I never lie
(Won't it be right, I'll never lie?)
Or flirt
(I will never, never, never, never mess around it)
Soon as I get home, soon as I get home
(No babe, oh ho)

From work
(I'm comin' straight home to you baby, 'cause I am love)
Girl I'll be around, never let you down
For all that it's worth
(All that it's worth)

I give good love
(Good love, good love, good love, good love)
Oh give good love, girl
(Good love, good love, good love, good love)
Givin' givin' oh givin' givin' givin' givin' givin' givin'
Good love, yeah
(Good love, good love, good love, good love)
