There she sits alone reading at the coffee shop
With a ponytail, glasses and a yellow mop
You can tell just by her face she had been working all day
Her profile was cute and she just reminded me of may...

Cinderella my dove...
Can you pass me a little love...
Cinderella my dove...
Can you pass me a little love...ohohoo...

The clock says its 2:00
And i'm still sitting with you...
Tell me i don't have to go.
Baby i'm needing you so!

Cinderella my dove...
Can you pass me a little love...
Cinderella my dove...
Can you pass me a little love...ohohoo...
