"Infinity"

We started at once
Within the second
The turd was laying on the grass as the fifth was moving forth

Then came the sex right on top of the nine The seven was the prime waiting for the 8 to come and lay down

Then we took the eight and layed it down and invented infinity
We didn't even stop and wonder if it really exists

Then we became teens Right in front of the ones they were standing in a line Waiting for number 12

Then someone tatoed thirteen on my dick Then we skipped the rest and jumped staight to twenty one.

Then we took the eight and laid it down
and invented infinity
we didn't even stop and wonder if it really exists.
