The tension's high
I'm ready to go
The stakes are placed
The wind blows
The wulf is howling
I need some luck

This time i need to get what i want
I want some more
I need it all
I'm not gonna loose Anything except my soul

I been to the right
I been to wrong
This is the place, this is the time
I am not gonna let go
Until i'm there

Everybodys looking for a reason
Everybodys ontrial for treason
Everybodys trying to loose their soul

Everybody want's to be something
Everybody needs some more
Everybody might loose their soul
