"War Flower"

From The album "The End."

You sang come over
That you wanted me to be there
You want to become a flower
As the sad man comes your way

Hold me like treat me as a flower
Hold me tight and never let me go
Don't give in just give up the power
Until the sun starts shining again

If your heart is full off torment and an overkilling pain
let the sun shine on your carcass
And burn away the puss

Hold me like treat me as a flower
Hold me tight and never let me go
Don't give in just give up the power
Until the sun starts shining again
