Used to live my life for fortune
Used to live my life for fame
Always money in my pocket
I just loved playing the game

Strutting down the street's of the city
When Jesus called my name
He said, come follow me
Your life will never be the same

Never
Never the same
Never
Never the same
Never, never!

All I need is you
All I need is you

Now I live each day for Jesus
For soon he will return
He's bringing his reward with him
Satan, he's going to burn

We will all stand before him
On the judgement day
He promised that he will defend us
He'll carry us all away

He'll carry us all away
He'll carry us all away
He'll carry us all away
Away, away!

All I need is you
