Every moment, even though you're gone
I don't have to fear
'Cause it's very clear, there's a reason
And I know for sure, in a season,
Time will bring the cure
For I am strong and you're the Prince of Peace

Just the other day, my dear friend passed away
Now I'm here today. And I know I,
I know I need to pick up and carry on Carry on

Won't be long until I see him, yeah!

And every moment, even though you're gone
I don't have to fear
'Cause it's very clear, there's a reason
And I know for sure, in a season
Time will bring the cure

Where you are is where we all long to be
The cage will soon be opened and we will all be free

Goodbye cruel world
Oh yeah
Goodbye cruel world
Oh, yes

Now I'm trying, oh to face the truth
And really see
Oh I know I need to be set free
From all the things overwhelming to me

Where you are is where we all long to be
The cage will soon be opened and we will all be free

Goodbye cruel world
Oh yeah
Goodbye cruel world
Oh, yes
