You say that you wanna be set free
You know that you need a change inside of you
Oh yeah
You say that you wanna a brand new start
There's got to be a love that's true
Mmm, all right

Reach for love tonight
Search for truth

You say that you wanna know for sure
That all is well with you and God tonight
All right, all right
You say that you need a world tonight
That gives you hope
Well, all right
Tonight's the night

Reach for love tonight
Search for truth

If you believe
If you lay down your life tonight
You believe then you will never die
If you believe he'll melt your heart of ice

Oh, you say you're looking for a high tonight
A love that takes you where you never been before
You say you're looking for a place to rest
A warm embrace that leaves you on the floor
Ooh, once more

Reach for love tonight
Search for truth

If you believe
If you lay down your life tonight
You believe then you will never die
If you believe he'll melt your heart of ice

Reach for love tonight
Search for truth

If you believe
If you lay down your life tonight
You believe then you will never die
If you believe he'll melt your heart of ice

Repeat Chorus

How do you like it so far?
