People party, every party for me.
Late nights, bright lights, JD on ice.
I was blinded, I couldn't see
The right, up tight, never thought twice.

I had an empty feeling inside,
I was searching for something more.
Pow! It hit me,
When Jesus walked through this door.

My friends don't understand the change.
But since I've found your love,
I'm on top, top of the world.
I'm on top, top of the world.

You say I'm what the Devil's hoping to kill.
So long, so dark, feeling so cold.
But Jesus Christ showed me the truth,
And told me look up, now you've been gone.

Now old things have been made new.
My darkest hour has been long gone.
I'm living each day for you.
