"Who Will You Follow"

Visit "Who Will You Follow" on MotoLyrics.com

So many different paths to follow.
Are you stumbling in the night
It's not worth the cost to be eternally lost

Satan is the father of lies
Follow him you'll surely die
You need to be told come out of the cold
Yeah

There'll be no one to blame if you play his game.
Jesus is king he's why we sing

Who will you follow
Satan or The Author of Life
Jesus paid the price
God made the sacrifice for you

Do you feel like you're losing the war
Jesus said, "I am the Door"
And you'll fall away if you disobey

Day by day you are making a choice
Listening to someone's voice
Will you be defiled or be God's child

There'll be no one to blame if you play his game
Jesus is king he's why we sing

Who will you follow
Satan or The Author of Life
Jesus paid the price
God made the sacrifice for you
