This whole time I, yeah i thought you were right for me
But i could only, know what was yet to be
Now I, open up my eyes and i can finally see.

That you were never right for me,
And why cant you see me crying?

Saw you over there boy,
Over there with that girl.
I could tell that u were flirtin',
It took only one wink,
I doubt u ever payed any attention
To hear my own heart sing

And I'm fallin inbetween
And it isnt even a dream
Its just me and you
So, it all becomes so true.
And i think to myself and sigh
Why must i always cry
Why cant I forget about you
Cause your, everlasting in my heart
