The lies that you told came to unfold
I shed no tear for a sorry assed queer
The rides that we took came from old books Honkey tonk stories, a honky tonk coup, a honkey tonk coup
Oh I don't care I change my hair
Oh I don't care I change my hair
You want it short, I got it long
Your want it black, I got it blond
You want it short, I got it long
Your want it black, I got it blond
Oh I don't care I change my hair
You never lacked in words, you always liked to hurt
Your smile gave away your need to have a fear
Shed a tear
You couldn't wait to show your heart a rotten stone
My blood on my back the pain of my flesh your words
Your god damned words
Chorus
Solo
In the way you behaved, in the things that you said
The roar of the crowd the thrill of the kill your ill well my minds made up I think I'll string you up I shed no tear for a sorry assed queer Chorus out
