If your watching can you
see me fall down on my knees.
Can you hear the earth breaking with how heavy it is.
Crushing flowers that were standing tall out in a field.
I have covered all the daisies
there are no more to eat.

Oh how old i've grown can't even stand on my own.

If you'd shown me you had loved me I'd be on my feet.
Wouldn't stumble, wouldn't mumble
or be scared of defeat.
I would look out every morning
and feel the suns heat.
If the rain came, I'd be ready to run through the streets.

OH... I'd dance along
I'd go like there was nothing wrong
I'd go like there was nothing wrong.

If your in there can you wake up and be who you are.
Come and save me come and lift me
for I've fallen to far.

I can go, I can go, if you let me, I'll go
I can go I can go if you let me I'll go.
