White dawg.

I burn for you, burn for you.
theres nothing in this world i wouldnt do for you
i was so afraid i ran away
ran away because i never been in love with way
I burn for you, burn for you.

lord forgive me, i hide so they cant see too embarrassed, ashamed to show the real me so im lost, tears running down my face over and over i just keep making the same mistakes.
so much temptation, yeah i want it all i feel like im slipping, im tryna hold on to this dream of rapin ive had for so long
but somethings missing
where did i go wrong
im in the closest searching tryna find me
i hear the voices
the devils right behind me you see i love women and i love fame im addicted to every aspect of this game will it ever change please tell me that i am who i am
i cant escape that i want it so bad and the devil knows.
lord please find me before i lose my soul

I burn for you, burn for you.
i was so afraid i ran away
I burn for you, burn for you.
i was so afraid i ran away

im shaking so afraid
ive never been in love this way

lord forgive me, i know i aint living right sneaking around with these groupie chicks every night i know you watching, crying, disapointed in me.
i know you watching, fighting for the good within me. but its so hard, you know where i been out here chasing money in this life of sin so many blessings
all the things you gave me put your hands on me
lord please save me
no matter where i been ive never fit in the devils got me now, im about to give in to this thug life, never was sincer
so many tears
lord i aint happy here
i feel abandom
trapt all by myself
i know im breathing but i feel like im in hell

I burn for you, burn for you.
i was so afraid i ran away

i was so afraid i ran away
