When you go home, are you running away?
Are you figuring out what you're trying to say?

While you are waiting, I wade at the shoreline.
The sun has been fading now I guess for more time than I saw-
It seems so small.

Tide swept inside of.. (cant figure out)
Know that i thought was.. (cant figure out)
So i just stay

Will you wait for me?

We'll just wait and see.

The moon on the water is carried to the land
as the seagulls were silent, I heard what you said
so clear- We can't stay here.

So clear- We can't stay here.
