Yeah, we're kissin' in the dark
See your eyes, they shine as bright as the stars
Breathing hard, as my hand slips down so slow.

"Why can't you just forget me?"
"If it were that easy, I wouldn't feel this way, now would I?"

I'll just tell you to go
For reasons left unknown.
I'm falling down to this again
I'm never coming up.

Trembling under covers
Feel your lips, they're so soft against my cheek
Remembering just how much I want you now.

"Why can't you just forget me?"
"If it were that easy, I wouldn't feel this way, now would I?"
