Falling back again, I hope you're happy there
Sorry that I never kissed you.
Get some sun for me, cause now my heart is cold
Did you ever feel anything at all?

I was always me
And you were always you
I will never be
Good enough for you
So just turn your back
Like you always do.

(My heart has turn to stone and now I stand alone.)
Call me back sometime, act like you really care.
You won't keep me down again.

These memories are dead to me.

What were you thinking when you left me?
This place feels empty.
Cause I was always me
But you were never you.

I will never be
Good enough for you
So just turn your back
Like you always do.
With every note, this sacred song.
I gave my heart to you.
(What were you thinking when you left me?)
