always wondered why your eyes are closed don't you want to see me closing mine?

heaven help me I'll devour him see me drawing out his spine hey boy come sleep

I will turn the ocean into sky how do you keep?

when the love is making you high

outta sight outta mind

high you're afraid of what I'll do to you recall the taste of something sweet between a thousand sheets of memory

I cannot be blamed because you're weak

hey boy come sleep

I will turn the ocean into sky how do you keep?

outta sight outta mind high
