Verse 1:

"What did I give to you
What did you give to me
A nothing trail of silences that warp in the rain
You said I don't really know the reason, It's just not the same
Oh what a vacant breath when, when you say my name

Chorus:

Do you know the weight I'm under
When everything revolves around you
Soon the shoulder falls

Verse 2:

All forgotten handshakes, names like falling leaves
Apathy will spread like wildfire, take you away from me
I'm leaning out the window
Gonna catch the august rain
I'm gonna fill you mouth up,
Make you live again"
