Everywhere we went and everything we did
I'm the only one who remembers it.
All the places that I go where you still live
Are fading out.

I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.

Baby baby baby up against my body.
Baby baby baby in the ground
Maybe when I'm nothing I will understand
Where you are now.

I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.

I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.
I can't keep all of our secrets.
