Just because I left with your friend
I'll probably never do it again
We never seem to get it right
Always end up in fight
I'm wrong in the end

I'm so dumb
I don't know how it happened
I could kick myself
I just know that it happened
I could kick myself

Covering my tracks I can't concentrate
Everything I have is blowing up in my face
White lies, thin ice breaking underneath my feet
Oh my God, this is it

Now you know I'm changing my ways
Been going on for too many days
Never just the black and white
I just wanna keep you tight
It's all been a daze

I'm so dumb
I don't know how it happened
I could kick myself
I just know that it happened
I could kick myself

Covering my tracks I can't concentrate
Everything I have is blowing up in my face
White lies, thin ice breaking underneath my feet
Oh my God, this is it

I can't believe I blew it
All along you knew it
I've gotta turn this wrong into right
All I had to do was stay
At home the other night
