That wheel of fortune went spinning round.
High, high hopes went crashing down.
We were all locked up, free to go.
I guess it goes to show you never know.

You never know, You never know,
You never know, You never know,
You never know, You never know, I guess it goes to show you never know.

Cold hard facts, nothing stuck.
They were shooting fish in a pickup truck.
But it the end, it was all a show.
And I guess it goes to show you never know.

You never know, You never know,
You never know, You never know,
You never know, You never know, I guess it goes to show you never know.

Now here we are, sitting pretty.
High on a hill over redwood city.
From little seeds, big plants will grow.
Like pulling a rabbit from a hat.
Big home run you're last at bat.
We're counting blessings, taking it slow.
And I guess it goes to show you never know.

You never know, You never know,
You never know, You never know,
You never know, You never know,
I guess it goes to show, I guess it goes to show,
I guess it goes to show you never know.
