Been a long, long time without you
I've spent so many lonely hours thinking about you
Now that I'm lost, never again will I be alone
I've found I'm lost, oh yeah, oh child, oh yeah
I've found I'm lost

What has happened, what has caused this to be Heavenly comedy or is this true, reality?
The girl to be my wife is now gone from my life
And I'm lost, yeah, oh yeah, oh child
I've found that I'm lost, I'm lost, I'm lost, I'mlost

All is lost while my heart is slowly dying
The girl to be my wife is now gone from my life
And I'm lost, yeah, oh child
I've found that I'm lost
I'm lost, where am I going, where are all my friends now that I'm lost
I've found that I'm lost, I'm lost, I'm lost, I'm lost

The girl to be my wife is now gone from my life
I've found I'm lost
I've found I'm lost...
