All I need from you is a good conversation
Because it gives me sweet inspiration
And to tell you I never felt this way before
I know there is some way today

Love your brothers, my friends, love your sister
Love your brothers, my friends, love your sister

And to tell you I must admit you've got me thinking
There were times I thought that I was sinking
But I'll always want to be in that position
Where I, where I can see more clearly, can see more clearly

Now I must admit you've got me thinking
There were times I thought that I was sinking
But I'll always want to be in that position
Where I, where I can see more clearly, clearly

Love your brothers, my friends, love your sister
Love your brothers, my friends, love your sister
