If you loved me any more than you do
Then yours would be an infinite love
A love I couldn't quantify
Like the countless stars in the sky above
If you loved me any more than you do
Then my heart would burst, to full to receive
Your love would flow deep inside of me
My chest would heave
Your love would be like a river
Ever flowing to the sea
Your love would conquer
And set my heart free
Your love would be like a spinning planet
In the galaxy
Forever spinning around my sun
Attracted by my gravity
Your love is like a tattoo forever stained on my heart
I know that we could never, ever be apart
Life without you, would lead to suicide
Knowing that a part of me, had forever died
Your leaving me is a nightmare, I've never woken

to

Leaving you is something I could never do

Your face is painted on my mind

Etched by a pen, only love can find
