ill watch every little thing you do and all the times just like when, you make us all so craazy when you go, make us feel stupid again. maybe were not cut out for this no, all these little things they really get to me i just wanna go, so look me in the eyes, so slowly you could tread the stars are shining bright tonight, that's what she said.

Now your a little under dressed and you cant fall asleep, he lays so far away with the stars shining o no no, well talk real late tonight id say about 2 or 3 , its just like in that movie, it worked out perfectly.

ooo it worked out perfectly oooo im talkin everything, i just don't see why we cant make this happen tonight. its all in your head, we've found the problem its internal, so lets get out of bed, lets lose the world but save the girl. I think im gunna try and save tonight, im think im gunna try and save tonight, i think im gunna try and shed some light.
