well were all stuck here and we cant figure out why everything were told in life, is in a big black suit with a fancy little tie and i just don't think its right, but i know this is true, yea i know its not a lie, why the grass is always greener on the other side.

well were straight out of Chicago and i don't think we can follow anything about this style of life cuz i put up quite the fight for my suburban life but i guess it wasn't right, they don't know about us if you're one of a kind you're going to take a fall, they wont grow with out us tell my folks this is not their fault, cause were all along for the ride i couldn't do it if i tried because the grass is always greener on the other side.

you know that everytime i walk i feel like we cant talk because the girls don't think its cool, and you know i really hate m all the girls they think im gay because i wear my belt to school.

Pre chorus , chorus.
