You give me love that I can't say more than life it self you take my breath away I can't hardly even speak when I think about the way things used to be

I've been this way before walking in the rain
tryin' to find my way

I'm calling at your name

all I want is you
no one else would ever do
all I want is you
help me make it trough another day

all I want is you

take me with you when you leave I can't standing here alone how my heart would surely bleed just to tought I try to live without your love

all I want is you
all I want is you
help me make it trough you got me beggin I'm down on my knees believe me baby I just can't help myself sweet love have mercy a little sympathy believe me baby

I can't stop thinkin' about you
