Now I know, I've seen that look
On your face before
When you realized all the memories
Walked right out the door

Now it's eye for an eye
A tooth for a tooth
No more hiding behind the truth
I'm gonna get exactly what's coming to me

You're gonna break my heart again
You never let me forget it
You're gonna break my heart again
But you're gonna live to regret it

Now you say I took advantage of you
When you never knew the score
But, you should know, we've been this way
One thousand times before

You told me once, you told me twice
It's down to me, girl, to pay the price
But, this time's the last time, that's for sure

You're gonna break my heart again
You never let me forget it
You're gonna break my heart again
But you're gonna live to regret it, yes, you are

You talk of how our love was meant to be
And all the time you sacrificed for me

So how could I forget it, why should I regret it
'Cause when you told me you loved me
I knew it was lies
So no more crying, no more goodbyes
'Cause this time's the last time, that's for sure
Break my heart

Now you say, there is no one in the world
Can get the better of you
And you should know, you never made it easy

With the pain you put me through

I told you once, I told you twice
It's down to you, girl, to pay the price
'Cause this time's the last time, that's for sure

You're gonna break my heart again
You never let me forget it
You're gonna break my heart again
But you're gonna live to regret it

You're gonna break my heart again
You never let me forget it
You're gonna break my heart again
But you're gonna live to regret it

I just can't take anymore
No more, no more, no more
